Lecture venue: Hong Kong Productivity Council, HKPC Building, 78 Tat Chee Avenue, Kowloon, Hong Kong (Room number to be notified)

Programme Highlights & Course Outline:

To foster continuous professional development, the HKIOA has been, from time to time, organizing technical seminars/events for local professionals to help them keeping abreast of the latest developments in the acoustic profession. The HKIOA with the support of HKIE and HKIEIA is now organizing a workshop specifically on road traffic noise measurement. The workshop aims at providing the fresh comers of local industry with updated skills and techniques required for road traffic noise assessment. Apart from theoretical sessions, a practical session will be conducted for on-site noise assessment:

- Day 1: Basic acoustics and instrumentation;
- Day 2: Hands-on experience on road traffic noise measurement and latest developments in instrumentation;
- Day 3: Road traffic noise related legislation, policy and practices, end-of-course assessment.
- Day 4: Practical session: On-site road traffic noise measurement;
