

Zemac Careers

Role: Project Engineer

Zemac is Hong Kong's leader in Acoustic Engineering and Contracting. You will have the opportunity to collaborate with our team on cutting edge construction projects in Hong Kong. We are a specialist in sound and vibration control solutions with over 50 years of experience working with private and government clients.

Sustainability has become a cornerstone for most major construction project. Joining our team will enable you to work on Hong Kong's most iconic projects while learning how to apply noise and vibration engineering to help developers improve the probability, sustainability, and quality of their developments.

Main Job Description

- Lead in Engineering solutions for building works with a focus on acoustic treatment for buildings (New Build and A&A works)
- Develop and check detail drawings, plans, and reports for formal submissions
- Lead in calculation and simulation for design checking and submission purpose
- Contribute to cost estimation
- Coordinate submission, approvals, and site matters
- Coordinate the flow of information between clients, consultants, and contractors
- Ad-hoc duties as required

Requirement

- Bachelor Degree in Engineering or equivalent experience may be considered
 - Experience in Mechanical or Environmental Engineering is an advantage
 - Proficient in AutoCAD, Excel are a must
 - Willing to work from site as required
 - Fluency in both written and spoken English and Chinese is a must
 - Strong communication, coordination and presentation skills and ability to work in a team is essential
 - Candidates must be motivated, independent individuals with initiative, who can work autonomously and are committed to delivering the highest quality services to our clients
-

Zemac Careers

Career Opportunity

Candidates looking to join Zemac can expect mentorship and collaboration from the founding member and former president of the Hong Kong Institute of Acoustics. The training program is design to position candidates with a strong foundation in construction or engineering to gain exposure to the core competencies in Acoustic Contracting and Engineering. This includes, design & calculation, site experience, project coordinate and management.

We offer streams to membership to the HKIOA, Chartered Association of Building Engineers, Chartered Engineers UK, and HKIE

What We Offer

- Attractive Salary Package & Year-End Bonus
- Training for Chartered Engineer Qualification
- Professional Training for Noise and Vibration Control Certificate

This is an exciting time to join our team as we build on commitment to deliver various highly anticipated projects. We promote transparency, collaboration, communication and always strive for the best.

We are an Equal Opportunities Employer. Personal data provided by job applicants will be treated in strict confidence in accordance with our personal data policy and for recruitment purposes only.

Contact

Interested candidates should forward resume, salary expectations and availability via recruiting@zemac.com. Successful candidates will be offered remuneration commensurate with their qualifications and experience.
